Message From the Pastor

Great Cloud of Witnesses

Did you notice this summer how refreshing a cloud cover could be after being beaten down with 90-something degree days? Sometimes, those clouds provided a welcome rain shower. What a relief!

Some clouds recently brought with it damaging storms as our neighbors to the coast can attest. So many people will be recovering for years from Hurricane Florence. Some clouds bring danger and trouble.

The writer of the Hebrews writes, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God."

This is the kind of cloud God gives us followers of Christ. We have so many who have come before and are here now cheering us on in our Christian journey. Jesus is the one whose example we follow and emulate ultimately.

So this fall we will be hearing from our Fort Hill cloud of witnesses. Sundays we will hear stories from our own witnesses who show us who God is and how God loves. In the coming weeks we will be asked to reflect on who those witnesses are in our lives and how this church has encouraged you in running the race of faith. We will also focus on our faith practice to "Give Generously" in response to all God has done for us in and through these witnesses and through Jesus Christ.

I know how much this congregation loves to cheer. God deserves our thanks and praise, not just our team. Let us cheer one another on in faith and works of love and generosity!

Choir Corner

Musicians are off and running for the fall. Choirs are rehearsing for special services like World Communion Sunday, Kirkin' of the Tartans, Thanksgiving, and Christmas. Handbells are ringing, children and youth are singing, and adults are pondering over their notes and words. Much planning and preparation go into making music here at Fort Hill. Our goal is for God to be praised and glorified.

And we offer praise to God for a special gift bestowed to the music ministry. On a very exciting note, Jim and Vernie Roberts (Chancel Choir members for many years) recently sold their home in Seneca. And in that home was a beautiful 6-foot Kawai grand piano. With Jim downsizing, he offered to donate the piano to the choir room. We are so grateful for their generosity. It looks great and sounds wonderful. Stop by to see it sometime and play it, if you'd like! Thank you, Jim and Vernie.

Smiling-n-singing,

Margaret

Why Do We Give to the Church?

Our faith requires us to give generously, not because we get a deduction on our taxes. That being said, I know that we all like getting that deduction. With the new increased standard deduction, many of us are still trying to get another benefit from giving to the church. So here are some things to think about as we continue to support our church.

If you have an IRA and you are 70.5 or older, you can transfer your gift from the IRA as part of your RMD (required minimum distribution). It will not add to your adjusted gross income so that you might not pay as much tax on your social security income or other tax items triggered off AGI. You can give up to $100,000 even though it is higher than the RMD. Your financial advisor should know how to do this.

If you own appreciated stock and you want to make a contribution, it's a good plan to give the stock to the church. Even if you don't get the deduction, you will not have to claim the gain on the stock as income, a considerable tax savings. Again, your financial advisor can assist you.

This is not an immediate tax savings, but a possible estate planning idea. Name Fort Hill Presbyterian Church as a beneficiary of your IRA or 401(k). The asset will not be taxed as it comes out to the church, not that we want to get this too soon.

If we don't continue to support our beloved Fort Hill, it can't carry out its mission to teach us how to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. And, we all know that one of our faith practices is to "Give generously."

Thanks for information from an article written by Edward Jones for David Adrian, a Seneca financial advisor with Edward Jones. Previously published in Upstate Lake Living, Fall 2018 volume.

Warning: Talk About Sexuality at Your Own Risk!

Don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you? Don't you know that you have the Holy Spirit from God, and you don't belong to yourselves? You have been bought and paid for, so honor God with your body. — 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

Lots of us well-meaning church folk have a problem. You see, if a child asks us why Jesus died on the cross, most of us could come up with a good answer: “Jesus died for our sins” or “Jesus died so that we could have eternal life with God.”

But if a child comes up to us in church and asks why God gave us bodies or why God created sexuality, well...that may not be such an easy question for us to answer. What's the appropriate thing to say? Am I allowed to answer this? Why couldn't they just ask me something easy like the theology behind Jesus' crucifixion??

We aren't pulling any punches in youth ministry this year. We are engaging real issues and connecting them to our faith. We're talking about things that adolescent disciples will experience or be exposed to during the course of their teenage lives and beyond — things like drugs, alcohol, sexuality, self-harm, and grief.

The one thing we absolutely cannot do is be silent about these issues as a community of faith. It may be uncomfortable. It may lead to questions with no easy answers. But that is a much better place to be than letting our young disciples think that our faith bears no connection to these issues, or worse, that the church does not believe these things are worth talking about.

So beware! Conversations about real issues of faith with adolescents may lead to difficult questions. They may also create faithful and resilient disciples, equipped with the knowledge that they, too, are temples of the Holy Spirit.

Joyfully,
Dana

Disaster/Emergency Response

In the wake of Hurricane Florence, FHPC members are being asked what role the church should plan in responding to natural disasters and other short-term emergencies. A letter and short survey was sent out by e-mail this past week. Hard copies are available in the Narthex and FHOG Office starting this past Sunday. The link for the on-line submission is:

https://clemsontx1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_5Bwx4QfYdnTxMWx

DISASTER RELIEF

Please take a few moments to complete the form on-line or in hard copy — one survey for each family unit. Based on survey responses from the congregation, we will establish priorities and draft a plan so that we can work through this current disaster and be better prepared to provide assistance for future natural disasters and emergency situations that may arise.

Church Mouse

Things are so busy at church that I hardly know where to go first. I must tell you that Lauren Young dropped no crumbs for me when she prepared communion. Be sure to thank the others who rotate communion preparation — Jerry & Beth Chapman, Robin Denny, Pam & Jerry Waddle, and Suzan Simmons (she directs all). In September those who served communion were Helen Wooten and Judy Blackwell (8:30 servers); Leanne Broome, Paul Durland, Linda Parsons, Michael Worley, Kenny Mohr, Sue Limber, Tommi Jones, Barbara Madison, Cindy Sloan, and LeAnne Greene.

In August the following were elected to serve on the Officer Nominating Committee: Dan Anderson, Lin Dearing, Donna McCubbin, Linda Gahan, Ellen Ackerman, Cindy Sloan, Eddie Chavis, Sally Martin, and Nancy Spittler.

The following are currently coordinating events: Judy Blackwell — Blood Drive, Debbie Durland — Dinners for Eight, Rebecca Ackerman — keeping in touch with Fort Hill College students, Mary Barron and Linda Gahan — coordinate Family Promise, and then the Welcome Back BBQ workers, Ken & Shirley Chappell (flowers), Helen Wooten, Lisa Britt, Todd & Catherine Latiff, Mary Morrison, and Sue & Mary Limber.

The funeral of Claire Caskey involved many: Luncheon — Cathy Morton, Susan Brown, and Cynthia Gravely; Reception — Rose Ross and Clarice Gustafson; and Funeral Guild members — Robin Weeks, Tom & Stephanie Scott, Bob & Carol Stout (coordinators), and Nan Jones. Other Funeral Guild members are Nancy Oates (head), Marlene Nicholas, Barbara Westall, Pam Waddle, Donna London, Lois Sill, Maggie Bandy, Marcia Barker, Tom McInnis, Paul Durland, Diane Egan, Raenota Merrill, and Nagel Cushman.

So many people to thank for all they do at Fort Hill.

Must hunt some crumbs in the preschool before my nap.

Family Promise

Thank you to all who helped to care for our Family Promise guests during our host week of September 23-30, 2018. It takes a community to host each week that we are the “home base” for our guests. Once again, your willingness to serve and contribute your time and resources to care for our neighbors-in-need accomplished the task and enriched our lives doing so. Thank you, volunteers!

Fall and Winter Clothing Collection for Safe Harbor

Fall is on its way! The cooler temperatures and the crisp days send us to our closets for warmer clothing. It is the perfect time to check your wardrobe for the clothing that you no longer use, and collect and bring your selections to Fort Hill Presbyterian to give to Safe Harbor. There are cabinets downstairs in the old “dungeon” in the administration building available for your October donations. Please bring new or gently used fall and winter clothing in good condition, for men, women, and children. Safe Harbor greatly appreciates your donations!

Please note: Our storage area is limited. It would help us stay organized if you would please limit your donations to the month requested for drop-offs. Thanks!

Contact persons: Susan Beckwith (864) 654-3337, Joan Dixon (864) 654-1065, and Gensie Waldrop (864) 888-7954.

We are looking forward to seeing you in September, studying the scriptures, growing our faith, and enjoying the fellowship of our sisters in Christ! Come and bring your friends!

Operation Christmas Child Boxes for Samaritan's Purse

Deadline November 7. Please include a $7 donation for shipping. Use a standard -sized shoebox (no oversized shoe boxes for efficient packing, please) or a similarly sized plastic box. Indicate whether the gift is for a girl or boy and include the appropriate age for which the gift is appropriate (2-4, 5-9, 10-14). Fill the box with gifts that may include small toys, school supplies, hygiene items (mild soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, comb, etc.), and personal items (sunglasses, t-shirts, socks, watch, ball cap, and solar flashlights). Soccer balls are a longed-for item for boys. A deflated ball and small pump, or a small ball to fit the box is ideal.

If you wish, add a personal greeting in a separate envelope. Eva Henry will place pamphlets listing the requested items in the Collection Room. Please deliver the unsealed boxes, or bring gift items to the FHOG Office at the Administration entrance on Edgewood Avenue beginning October 17. Again, the deadline is November 7. Thank you!!

Have You Thought About Why You Help Support Our Church Financially?

When thinking of my association with the church, I have often felt that I am too small and too insignificant to make any difference in the world. However, some years ago I ran across the story below as told by Robert Fulghum in one of his little books, It Was on Fire When I Lay Down on It.

He relates: The story says that a traveler from Italy came to the French town of Chartres to see the great church that was being built there. Arriving at the end of the day, he went to the site just as the workmen were leaving for home. He asked one man, covered with dust, what he did there. The man replied that he was a stonemason. He spent his days carving rocks. Another man, when asked, said he was a glassblower who spent his days making slabs of colored glass. Still another workman replied that he was a blacksmith who pounded iron for a living. Wandering into the deepening gloom of the unfinished edifice, the traveler came upon an older woman, armed with a broom, sweeping up the stone chips and wood shavings and glass shards from the day's work. "What are you doing?" he asked. The woman paused, leaning on her broom, and looking up toward the high arches, replied, "Me? I'm building a cathedral for the Glory of Almighty God."

The people of Chartres began something they knew they would never see completed. They built for something larger than themselves. They had a magnificent vision. It was important that they all contributed what they could to the effort. This gives me inspiration to do what I can to help.

I had a discussion with my younger and wiser Presbyterian brother recently about giving and tithing to the church.

He said, "Just remember that the church has to live on the money that each of us gives to it and we have to live on what we keep."

Then he continued: "A good way to think about tithing your 10 percent is to take the amount you give to the church and multiply it by 10 and you live on that."

Without hesitation, I replied, "I couldn't possibly live on that amount of money — I would need more."

Without hesitation, he replied: "Well then you need to give more to the church."

I was quiet for a long time.

Fort Hill Children's Ministry Meet Me @ The Fort

Fort Hill Church Children's Ministry is now hosting Wednesday night programs for children K-4—5th grade. Each week, we meet at 5:00 pm in the Nest for music, Bible stories and activities, and dinner. At 5:30 we break out into small groups. Preschool children go with our volunteers for Kingdom Kids, a Bible story, crafts, games, and playtime. First and Second graders go with Mrs. Nina Moede for Wonders of Worship class to learn about faith practices. Third through Fifth graders go with Mrs. Katie Wilson for Bible Quest, a Bible study that includes deep discussion of scripture, games, and other related activities. Children can also sign up to participate in Strong Praises Choir (K5—3rd grade; 6:15—6:45) or Singers of Christ (4th—8th grade; 6:45—7:15) with Mrs. Margaret MacKay.

We are having so much fun following our faith journey together! If your children wish to join us, please contact Katie Wilson (katie.wilson@forthillchurch.org). This program is open to children who are not members of Fort Hill as well. We are always looking for volunteers if you feel called to work with these precious children!
