Message From the Pastor

January 2016

Star-Followers; the Force Awakens

Ok, I know, you may be sick of all the Star Wars hype, but stay with me. We have been using the titles of the Star Wars movies this season as we journey to Bethlehem. The final group to arrive there in Bethlehem was the wise men (Matthew 2:1-12) from the East. The arrival of the wise men or magis (actually, Persian fire priests) who expect a savior kicks off or inaugurates the kingdom of God. The appearance of a comet in this period was a sign of political upheaval which is why Herod gets nervous and hunts Jesus down. Epiphany, when we celebrate this revelation of God's Son to the non-Jews is the start of a whole new world. A new force awakens in the world. The Kingdom of God has come near in the person of Jesus, the child Christ. The Savior of the world, and all peoples, was born. God had promised to Abraham that he would be blessed with descendants as many as the number of stars in the sky. And his people would be a blessing to the "nations" (meaning Gentiles, all peoples).

We will celebrate Epiphany (the 13th day after Christmas) on Sunday, January 3. As a new year is inaugurated, each of you will receive a new "star word" something to guide you into the new year. We did this a couple of years ago. Chuck Cruickshank drew the star with the word "venture". Having lost his beloved wife, Betty, he was curious what that meant. But each time something new happened in his life, he would report in that he had a new "venture". He sold a home, moved to Clemson Downs, made new friends, and started a new garden. He reported in each time what God was doing in his life. It was fun to see how his word became real or to be Biblical "the word was made flesh."

What new thing is God doing in your life? Come on January 3 and pick your star word and see how God might guide and direct you into this New Year.

May God bless you and Fort Hill Church this new year.

Peace,

Laura Smith Conrad, Pastor

Choir Corner

2016! A new year! With new days and new months! Birthdays come around again whether we want them to or not. The season of Lent and the glorious celebration of Easter repeat. Events are already scheduled in my life with an annual choir festival; precious grandchildren due to arrive; possible vacation times. But for some, a new year means being without a special loved one; or the beginning of treatments or surgeries not planned.

In all things—whether planned or unplanned—God is the same yesterday, today and forever, no matter what year it is. Hebrews 13:8 tells us that, and it is assuring. I remember an older minister and his wife who retired to my hometown when I was a young teen. He was not a native of Iva, but she had grown up there. I was enthralled by him—his large stature, his booming speaking and singing voice, and by the unlit cigar he chewed on! (I couldn't understand how that could taste good, but we'll save that for another discussion!) The thing I will always remember about the Sundays he preached is that he opened or closed every service with the text—God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. That repetition allowed me to believe it and trust in it always.

In our Lessons and Carols service in December, the choir, accompanied by organ, brass, and percussion, did a piece that we bring back every few years entitled The Dream Isaiah Saw. It is moving and powerful. The words are a paraphrase by Dr. Tom Troeger of Isaiah 11, and the recurring refrain talks about what Isaiah saw and how the coming of the Christ child would remedy it. The last time we sang the refrain, it ended with this text—"Little child, whose bed is straw, take new lodgings in my heart. Bring the dream Isaiah saw—knowledge, wisdom, worship, awe!" That little child of Jesus Christ, whose birth we celebrated a week ago—is the same yesterday, today, and forever; full of knowledge, wisdom, worship, and awe!

Rest and find comfort in that assurance as a new year and opportunities abound.

Smiling-n-Singing

At the end of the month, members of the Chancel Choir will go to Festival by the Sea in Charleston for our sixth year. Those attending will be Charles and Mary Barron; Mark and Sarah Morrison; Chip and Diane Egan; Garland Gravely; John Sherman; Cindy Sloan; Marlene Nicholas; Charlotte Gruosso; Jim Roberts; and Laurel Whisler.

Children's Ministry Update

Advent season passed too quickly! I hope everyone found time to enjoy special moments with family, loved ones and friends. One of the Advent messages dear to me is Room for a Little One. The message found in this story reminds us to be caring and loving to those in need. Our congregation is always mindful of the needs of others as exhibited by the response in providing Christmas food baskets. You are urged to continue this spirit of involvement and compassion as you plan your schedule for the 2016 year. Please remember to make time to honor the Special Little One God sent to lead us. Join in the activities of worship, fellowship, learning, and service with your Fort Hill family. Bring friends with you. There is always room for one more.

Thank you to all who planned and participated in Angel Vespers, Gift Day, Christmas food baskets, decorating the church, caroling, sharing musical talents, leaving special notes around the church and on cars, Advent Readers, and Christmas Eve services. So many people made this season special. Please see January and February dates on the next page.

Many wishes for happiness, health, and hospitality during 2016.

Men of Church Announcement

Men of the Church, Tuesday, January 5, 8:00 am at Paws Diner, Hwy 123 toward Seneca across from Bountyland Exxon for breakfast. They will expect us and provide a separate area for us. In addition, we are planning on three or four evening meets a year, with dinner, and a speaker that would be attractive to our younger members and their sons. We want to encourage young boys in particular to come with their fathers and enjoy an all male atmosphere. A number of our current members remember starting their association with Men of the Church in that fashion and it had a positive influence on their lives. Meeting times are in a state of flux due to reconstruction, but we will keep you informed.

From the Finance Ministry

Through November, total income was $828,413 while expenses were $744,106 for a surplus of $84,307. Overall expenses are at 80% of budget, while income is at 89.2%. As you can see, income is approximately 2.5% below budget while expenses are at 11% below budget. Session ministry chairs are doing a great job of managing expenses, and not being fully staffed is contributing to the budget surplus. Your continued financial support is needed for Fort Hill to sustain its ministries to members, community, and around the world.

Bridging Generations Update: Pledge giving for the month was $35,700.93. Non-pledge giving was $10,870.41, undesignated memorial gifts were $1,150 and interest income was $1.26 for a total of $47,722.60. Total income year to date is $743,776.51. Total expenses year to date: $1,722,542.51.

My PSA Story So Far

A Reflection by Ashley Hill, Class of 2019

Freshmen Bible Study members and University Ministry Intern, Maggie Alsup

When I first arrived at Clemson at the beginning of this semester, I was completely terrified, as I've come to find that most freshmen are. I had two of my best friends, Ashley and Bia, come to school with me, but I still wondered how I was going to make any friends or how I was going to survive away from home. The First Friday Festival was when the three of us first met anyone at PSA. Ashley and Bia said that we had to stop and talk to them, because they had heard about PSA through their church in Anderson and were really interested in joining. I was very apprehensive, because I had been raised in Baptist churches and had only been to one Presbyterian service in my life; I thought there was no way these people would accept me into their community, but boy was I wrong.

The second I met everyone there that day, I felt extremely comfortable and welcome. And even when I spilled food all over "the brand new carpet!" at the first PSA dinner, everyone just laughed and said that it's bound to happen at some point. I had never felt so welcome into a church community before, so I took the opportunity and ran with it. The three of us have been going to PSA every Sunday afternoon since, and have come to view the PSA center as a home away from home while we're at school. We joined the music group, go to freshmen Bible study every Tuesday, and now I'm writing this article, because I thought everyone should know just how much this group has meant to me. My faith has been growing, I have already made some lifelong friendships, and so many memories that it is hard to believe I still have three and a half years to go! Everyone at PSA means so much to me, it would be quite a task to mention them all individually, but I would like to say thank you to everyone. You guys have become my Clemson family and I couldn't be more grateful to you all. I'm so glad that I decided to join you at PSA, because I honestly don't know what I'd be doing without you.
