

Reflection Questions

For most of us, 2020 has been an eye opening year. It has been anything but a great 2020 diagnosis at an eye exam. As we finish up this year, 2020 has probably taken on a new meaning for each of us. In our minds it has been a year with many positive and many negative impacts. Much of which has been plain to see, while much has been a mystery. We have been left to ponder. And was it the year that each of truly realized that the Church is us, the congregation and people of God, rather than our beautiful buildings? Was it a year that we have seen so many challenges in our community, struggles with our neighbors and challenging experiences to communicate, and struggles with the unknown as we face a virus that has impacted so many in our community and lives? Has it caused us to consider what God calls us to do as Christ's followers? Or was it something else?

No matter what 2020 has represented to you, how do we see God helping us, individually and as Fort Hill Presbyterian Church as a whole, to learn from our past? How can we as Christians strive to come closer to the example Jesus Christ left us? How can we come "Together for Joy"? Much to contemplate as we prepare ourselves to understand what God is calling us to do in this season of stewardship!

TOGETHER FOR JOY

Together for Joy!

“Oh sing to the Lord a new song for He has done marvelous things!”

Psalm 98:1

Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth;
break forth into joyful song and sing praises.

Stewardship is giving in response to God’s grace and love toward us.

We are challenged to find new ways to use our gifts from God:

- our skills
- our talents
- our bodies
- our minds
- our spirit
- our wealth
