Message From the Pastor

November 2021

A Future with Hope

Perhaps you have experienced this over the last year and a half...times of not being able to think about anything but getting through today, staying safe, keeping up with daily changes with Covid-19. Then life began to change and get into a rhythm, and then it changed again. Just keeping up with crisis is all most of us have had energy for.

We are living through a downturn in cases and deaths, with the addition of vaccine boosters and children being eligible, I find myself ready to think again about the future. For the first time, I thought about taking a trip next year. We can plan beyond a couple of months. The clouds feel like they are parting, and we can see some rays of sunlight, of hope in this pandemic. Our deacons and circles of care have really been taking care of each other! I hope you are feeling a bit more hopeful, lighter, too.

God's people have always been through difficulty. In fact, sometimes that is where faith and trust are forged. The Hebrew children spent forty years in the wilderness without a map. Jesus fasted forty days in the desert being tempted by the devil. There were decades of exile, occupations, and wanderings as refugees. God's people have always seen hardship. But at the same time, they have always had God with them and the faith community banded together. They became hope for one another. Even the prodigal came home eventually. People of faith always know that God is working things out for good, even when they cannot see it.

I am hopeful for us as a congregation and pray for our collective renewal. I see signs of new life daily. Children are present daily at preschool and on Sundays and Wednesdays again. We have welcomed some wonderful new members who bring their gifts and stories to share. We have new folks serving in ministry as teachers, officers, and even livestream production crew. We will celebrate the ordination and installation of Jacob Kennedy as a Minister of Word and Sacrament on November 21. Jacob brings energy and good ideas, and our youth are alive and growing! We are so blessed to walk alongside these children, young people, and wise saints, too.

FOR SURELY I KNOW THE PLANS I HAVE FOR YOU, SAYS THE LORD, PLANS FOR YOUR WELFARE AND NOT FOR HARM, TO GIVE YOU A FUTURE WITH HOPE. THEN WHEN YOU CALL UPON ME AND COME AND PRAY TO ME, I WILL HEAR YOU.

+ JEREMIAH 29:11-13

I am excited to see more of the future God is preparing for us and to work to bring it about as a community. Thankful for your part in it!

Forward in Faith,

Laura Conrad, Pastor

Joining together on a journey of Christian faith, we seek to be Disciples of Christ and to share God's love in our community and around the world.

We do this as we Glorify God, Grow Disciples, Meet Human Needs.

Thanksgiving Worship Service at Old Stone Church 10:00 am, November 25

Join your neighbors in giving thanks. Old Stone Church meeting house is on the corner of Hwy. 76 and Old Stone Church Road. Together we will worship and praise God for the abundance of gifts God has shared with us. Remember the stone building is not heated and often does not warm up until the afternoon, so bring a coat and/or a blanket.

Choir Corner

Can it be that Thanksgiving is this month? It is a favorite time of year as we gather with family and friends to celebrate the many gifts God has bestowed upon us. There is nothing better than working to prepare the dressing/stuffing, vegetables, pies and enjoy a fried turkey!! The smells bring back wonderful memories as a child wanting to hurry and eat so that I could run across the street and play football with the neighbors! And now in my older years, I can't wait for all of our children and grandchildren to arrive and the chaos and fun to begin!!

As I ponder this season, I am blessed beyond measure and so very thankful for MANY things! What a blessing to be part of the Fort Hill family! Not only do I get to work with talented people of all ages making music, but I get to worship with a caring and faithful church family. So these words from this great old hymn still ring true each day of our lives. "To God be the glory, great things He hath done! ... Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the earth hear His voice. Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord! Let the people rejoice!!"

May we all rejoice this day and every day for the blessings and gifts God has bestowed upon us.

A joyous and Happy Thanksgiving to you all!

Smiling-n-Singing,

Margaret

Advent Activities

Hanging of the Greens

Please join us in the sanctuary at 2:00 on Sunday, November 21, as we “deck the halls” with wreaths, greenery, and the Narthex Christmas tree in preparation for Advent. Adults and youth are invited to share the joys of the season.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

On the four (4) Sundays prior to Christmas and Christmas Eve, we reflect on the message of hope and expectation with the lighting of an Advent wreath. This is a meaningful tradition for families to experience in this celebration on one of the following dates: November 28, December 5, December 12, December 19, and Christmas Eve service at 5 or 9 pm. Please contact Caroline Thomas at thomascb160@att.net if you are interested with optional dates you would like to participate.

JOY Offering Memorials

During this season of giving and remembrance, we invite you to ‘honor’ or ‘remember’ family and friends who have impacted your life by making a contribution to the JOY offering. Your gift, of any value, will be used for wreaths, greenery, poinsettias for FHPC and support underserved communities. Please complete the Honor and Remember form that is available in the Narthex and FHOG office (or use the tear off form below). Checks should be made payable to FHPC and submitted to the church along with the completed form by December 3. Memorials and honorariums will be recognized in the bulletin and The Window. Poinsettias will be available for pick up following the Christmas Eve services.

Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC)

Presenting our Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC) elected on October 17th to search for our University Ministry Associate Pastor. Please pray for this committee called to seek candidates and for the candidate God is preparing to serve alongside us at Fort Hill Church.

Garren Adamson is a junior at Clemson University studying Mechanical Engineering. He has been a member of the Presbyterian Student Association for 3 years. He has been a member of First Presbyterian Church in Lancaster, SC, for all his life and a confirmed member for 8 years. He has attended many summer camps and youth events at Montreat. Garren is an Eagle Scout and in his free time is involved with the Clemson Formula SAE team.

Tiffany Deal is a graduate of Presbyterian College and Clemson University. She currently serves as a Community Director for Douthit Hills East within the department of Housing and Dining for Clemson University. In her previous roles as a student and staff member at PC, Tiffany had the opportunity to sit on committees that searched for the Chaplin, Assistant Chaplin, and Chaplin Intern of the college.

Joan Dixon became a member of Fort Hill 23 years ago. During this time, she has actively been involved with Sunday school, served on search committees, served as Deacon for two terms, and is currently working on the Fall and Spring clothing drives, as well as the PW Honorary Life Membership Committee. Joan and her husband, Marv, have actively served PSA through their gifts of food, donations, attending their Sunday school, and being part of the Student Connector Family. They have been blessed to welcome girls into their Clemson family and would love to see this program continue.

Corey Glenn is a junior Civil Engineering student. Originally from Aiken, SC, he is a lifetime Presbyterian, a member of South Aiken Pres, where he was an active member of the youth group and served on a PNC. He has been an active member of the Presbyterian Student Association since his first Sunday in Clemson, including several leadership roles.

Karen Sawyer moved with her family to Clemson in 2004 and soon after joined FHPC. During that time, she has served on Christian Education Committees, a Pastor Nominating Committee, worked Gift Days, Vacation Bible School, and taught Sunday school to several different ages. Outside of pursuing a new career in real estate, she enjoys camping, hiking, sewing, and most of all travelling and spending time with her husband, Cal, daughter, Hannah (23), and son Ben (21).

Tom has served on and chaired several ministry committees for our church, and he chaired the PNC when Pastor Laura accepted the call in 2009 to minister to the FHPC congregation. Tom retired from Clemson University in 2018 after 32 years serving both the faculty and administration. He is Professor/Dean Emeritus of Animal and Veterinary Sciences in the College of Agriculture, Forestry and Life Sciences. His most important and favorite roles in life are being father and grandfather of his children and three granddaughters.

Michael Steele grew up in Pawleys Island Presbyterian Church in Pawleys Island, SC. He was always very active in youth activities such as spending a week in Montreat, Presbytery Youth Council, Youth Triennium, and youth group. He attended Winthrop University for his undergraduate degree and was involved in campus ministry. Winthrop is where he also met his lovely wife, Helen. Michael came to Clemson to earn his Master's degree. Between career moves to VA and GA, Michael and Helen started attending Fort Hill. Their son Harrison was baptized at Fort Hill. While in GA, Michael was called as an Elder at Carrollton Presbyterian Church as well as a member of the Interim Pastor Nominating Committee. In 2016, the Steele's moved back to Clemson for the third time!! Michael has also served as Elder at FHPC!

A Future with Hope

On Sunday, November 14, we will be celebrating Stewardship Dedication Sunday with the theme, “A Future with Hope.” Fort Hill Presbyterian Church is here to give our community HOPE. We are a waystation of hope for weary travelers, wayward sinners, and seasoned saints. God came to us in Jesus to help build a bridge between God and us. And we get to share that connection and companionship with God and each other.

Session would like to thank you for all you have done for Fort Hill in the past. Your support has allowed us to advance our mission to Glorify God, Grow Disciples, and Meet Human Needs. As we move toward 2022, we invite you to join us in giving thanks for all the resources — spiritual, theological, physical, and financial — that support our mission and allow us to provide “A Future with Hope” to many in need.

Pledge cards were mailed on October 20, and we ask that you bring your card to service on Stewardship Dedication Sunday on November 14, and we will fill them out together. If you are unable to attend on November 14, you can pledge online at:

<https://forthillchurch.org/worship/stewardship/online-pledge-card/>

Thanks again for all you have done and continue to do to support Fort Hill Presbyterian Church.

Church Mouse

Hey there, fall is here, and I love running through all the leaves outside. But best of all, I love what goes on inside the church. The choir, a select few — usually 16, sound great: Charles & Mary Barron, Chip & Diane Egan, Mark & Robbi Stokes, John Sherman, Karen Ware, Cindy Sloan, Gensie Waldrop, Judy Blackwell, Garland Gravely, Ronda Ricks, Raymond MacKay, Jim Dusenberry, and Jacquie Worley. Plus, the bells were part of service one Sunday: Jacquie Worley, Gensie Waldrop, Beth Weber, and Robbi Stokes.

Then we had the ushers: Larry & Wanda Glenn and Marcia Sherman. The first Sunday is Communion: Beth & Paige Durham, Tom Shealy, and Mark Kwist. We are doing a new church directory, but we are letting people do selfies, a new thing with using their cell phone — that is foreign to me for sure. Some of those cell phones are as long as I am. I really miss the old version, 'cause I was able to sneak into a picture or two when they set up in Bethlehem Hall. Bet you did not know that! But Eddie Payne, Lisa Britt, and Debbie Shealy were taking directory pictures three Sundays to make it easier for people.

We have had some funerals lately that were postponed because of that virus COVID. The funeral guild assisted in setting up, ushering, and making the sanctuary ready for Sunday services: Caroline & Jim Thomas, Nan Jones, Donna London, Mark Stokes, and Judy Blackwell. When the family asks for a meal before the funeral, we have groups that do that too: Cathy Morton, Cindy Sloan, Debbie Collins, Susan Brown, Mary Barron, Pam Waddle, and Barbara Madison are members of one of the groups.

Be sure to thank all these people for making our church family a Christ-filled one that serves everyone.

Operation Christmas Child Boxes for Samaritan's Purse

Here is a way to brighten the Christmas holidays for children around the world!

(Deadline November 7. Please include a $9/box donation for shipping.)

- Use a standard-sized shoebox (no oversized shoe boxes for efficient packing, please) or a similarly sized plastic box.
- Indicate whether the gift is for a girl or boy and include the appropriate age for which the gift is appropriate (2-4, 5-9, 10-14).
- Fill the box with gifts that may include small toys, school supplies, hygiene items (mild soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, comb, etc.), and personal items (sunglasses, t-shirts, socks, watch, ball cap, and solar flashlights). Soccer balls are a longed-for item for boys. A deflated ball and small pump, or a small ball to fit the box is ideal.
- Due to some cultural concerns and beliefs, please avoid stuffed animals.
- If you wish, add a personal greeting in a separate envelope.

Please deliver the filled but unsealed boxes, and any extra gift items to include in them, to the table in the PW Collection Room. The PW Collection Room is located at the bottom of the stairs opposite the Club Room in the Administration Building (entrance on Edgewood Avenue). Eva Henry will collect the boxes on Sunday, November 7.

From the Finance Ministry

Through September, total income was $740,463 while expenses for the first 9 months were $699,237 providing a surplus of $41,226. Overall expenses are at 67% of budget, while income is at 78%. As you can see, income is 3% above budget while expenses are 8% below budget. General Fund did sustain a lose of $21,134 for the month. Opportunity to Show Your Appreciation

The Fellowship Ministry invites you to help Fort Hill express appreciation to area first responders and medical personnel. On the first two Sundays of November, the 7th and the 14th, printed cards of appreciation and thanksgiving from Fort Hill Church will be available for members to sign. You may simply sign your name, or you may add your own message of encouragement and appreciation. These cards will be located in the Narthex. Signed cards will be paired with a gift card to be delivered to recipients during the week of November 15th.

During this month of Thanksgiving, we encourage all to find ways to show your appreciation to the individuals or groups who have positively impacted your life.

Thank you for your help,

Cyndi Davis
