Message From the Pastor

November 2022

Everyone Gets a Sabbath!

Oprah Winfrey is known for giving away gifts on her TV shows. You get a gift and you and you! If I could do that, I would give everyone a Sabbatical. University communities and Churches have this baked in for faculty and clergy. But not everyone gets that dedicated time away from being productive, being filled with renewal, rest, and God's Spirit. I want to be like Oprah and give a Sabbatical away to all of those in our faith family who after two years of working through a pandemic look exhausted and spent. I think of the working mom who is raising kids and caring for elderly parents who are struggling with mental and physical health after two years of a pandemic. I think of the medical technician who rose to the crisis, but then the world ramped back into hyper-speed, filling time with all the busyness of B.C. (Before Covid).

I think of life in High School and College terms. Remember that Freshman year was exciting and scary, but you got through it and even enjoyed some parts of it? Sophomore year was a slog. The "sophomore year slump" we call it. But the Junior year, it was the toughest. The Covid-19 pandemic is similar. We are in the toughest year yet for some. The effects of the last two and a half years are cumulative. An educator in our community who works with children shares that many kids and parents are not okay. Young adults have emerged into a world that seems less reliable at a difficult transition in life. Retirees seem to be doing the best but are supporting everyone who isn't. And some of our homebound and elderly members have really struggled.

Everyone gets a Sabbath! God built that gift into creation. It is a gift that we can unwrap and enjoy, structure, schedule, and set aside. Sometimes Sabbath is a walk on a weekday by the lake. Sometimes it is 5 minutes alone to be still and quiet with God — no words, just presence. Every week, we show up for God in worship — either online or in person, to be refashioned and remembered, put back together as Christ's body, and as individual beloved children of God.

This summer I will be going on Sabbatical as I start our 15th year in ministry together at Fort Hill Church. What a gift! One I do not take for granted. Session granted me a Sabbatical according to our Sabbatical Policy. I will be sharing more about this in the coming year, but I wanted you to know we are planning for this time. We will not have a Lilly Clergy Renewal grant as with Mary and my first time away. With the planning of Personnel and Program Support, the outstanding pastors and staff, and our ministry teams, all needs will be covered at Fort Hill. I look forward to time of renewal, recreation, and rest so that God can equip me and us for our mission. Thank you, Fort Hill.

In Christ,

Laura Conrad, Pastor

Thanksgiving Worship Service at Old Stone Church 10:00 am, November 24

Join your neighbors in giving thanks. Old Stone Church meeting house is on the corner of Hwy. 76 and Old Stone Church Road. Together we will worship and praise God for the abundance of gifts God has shared with us. Remember the stone building is not heated and often does not warm up until the afternoon, so bring a coat and/or a blanket.

Advent Activities

Hanging of the Greens

Please join us in the sanctuary at 2:00 on Sunday, November 20, as we "deck the halls" with wreaths and greenery in preparation for Advent. Adults and youth are invited to share the joys of the season.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

At the 8:30 and 10:45 services prior to Christmas, as well as the two (2) Christmas Eve services, we light the Advent wreath as we reflect on the message of hope with the birth of Christ. This is a meaningful tradition and we invite you and your family to participate in this celebration on one of the following dates and times: November 27 at 8:30 and 10:45; December 4 at 8:30 and 10:45; December 11 at 10:45; December 18 at 8:30 and 10:45, and Christmas Eve services at 5:00 and 9:00 pm.

JOY Offering Memorials

During this season of giving and remembrance, we invite you to 'honor' or 'remember' family and friends who have impacted your life by making a contribution to the JOY offering. Your gift, of any value, will be used for wreaths, greenery, poinsettias for FHPC and support underserved communities. Please complete the Honor and Remember form that is available in the Narthex, FHOG office, or by contacting Morgan in the Church Office (864-654-2061 or communications@forthillchurch.org). Checks payable to FHPC and the completed form should be submitted to the church office by December 2. Memorials and honorariums will be recognized in the bulletin and The Window. Poinsettias will be available for pick up following the Christmas services.

December The Window Deadline

The deadline for articles, announcements, and features for the December issue of The Window is Tuesday, November 15.

Please email your item as a Microsoft Word document to the church office at window@forthillchurch.org or type the item directly into your email and send. If possible, please keep your articles to 500 words or less.

Choir Corner

November always seems to be the start of the downhill slide toward the end of the year. Somehow so much gets bunched together as we complete the year. There are lots of events and holidays coming down the pipe. So jump on board and hang tight!!

I truly try to be grateful each and every day for all the blessings God has bestowed around us and upon us. November seems to always drive that home with special events and especially as we celebrate Thanksgiving.

So here are a few items on my "thankful list". If I put down everything that pops in my head, there won't be enough room in The Window for other people to do the same. I am extremely thankful for my personal family — husband, Raymond; our 5 children; 10 grandchildren; prayers answered for daughter Mary Kathleen's battle with breast cancer and the healing that has been bestowed upon her; welcoming another sweet granddaughter, Agnes, born to our youngest daughter, Kristen; and our wonderful sons-in-law and daughters-in-law.

And I am very grateful for our church family. They say variety is the spice of life. Well, we have many wonderful "spices" in our Fort Hill family. And each person of every age is a gift to our spice collection.

I have been blessed to serve many churches in my lifetime as a musician. And I love and appreciate every one of them — Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist. It doesn't matter what we are — it is WHOSE we are! And this Thanksgiving, I am so thankful to be one of God's children. And I am so thankful for ALL of you children of God of all ages. Happy Thanksgiving everyone! Be sure to keep a song in your heart, and as always...

Keep Smiling-n-Singing,

Margaret

Weddings at Fort Hill

The Worship Ministry is currently looking for those who might be interested in being a part of our Wedding Guild, which serves in close consultation with those wanting to be married in our church. A wedding is a service of worship, a service during which vows are exchanged "in the presence of God and these witnesses," and the marriage is solemnized with prayer and blessings. As our Book of Order states, "marriage is a gift God has given to all humankind for the well-being of the entire human family." It is a time of great joy and celebration for all involved.

Wedding Guild members serve the vision of Fort Hill Presbyterian Church by providing direction and management of church policies throughout the planning period, the rehearsal and the wedding itself. The word "guild" simply refers to an association of people with similar interests or pursuits. Might you have some of those interests...and those very special organizational skills that are so helpful to a loving couple wanting to experience that worship service known as the Christian marriage ceremony?

If you might be interested in serving in this way, please contact Diane Egan at 864-654-3317 or chipanddi@bellsouth.net.

Upcoming Wednesday Bible Studies: Prayer & Advent

Prayers in the Bible — November 2 & 9

The prayers found in the Bible are wonderful models of prayer for us today. The prayers of the Bible include deep human emotions, statements of awe and wonder at who God is and what God has done, and rich expressions of confession of sin and concern for the needs of the world. We can model our prayers of the Bible, and in many cases, we can use them as our own prayers.

The Bible encourages us, even commands us, to pray. “Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God” (Phil. 4:6). In the Bible, we have many models of people who pray, ranging from Moses, Solomon, and Jeremiah in the Old Testament to Jesus, Paul, and the apostles in the New Testament.

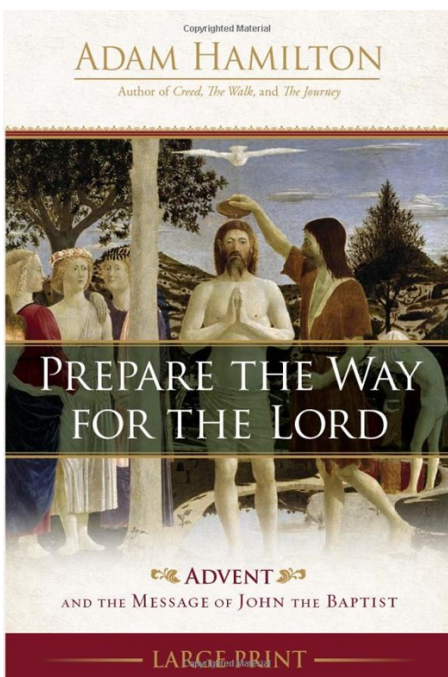

The Bible also contains a surprising number of prayers. Scholars have noted about eighty-five prayers in the Bible, and, in addition, many whole psalms and parts of psalms can be called prayers because they address God. These prayers are a wonderful resource for us. We can learn about prayer from them, and we can use them as our own prayers.

The first session focuses on prayers of praise and thanksgiving. The second session looks at prayers of confession and intercession. In both sessions, participants are encouraged to learn from the prayers in the Bible and discuss whether and how they might help one's prayer life.

Interested? Email mary.morrison@forthillchurch.org to receive the reading materials via email a few days before the class begins. Wednesdays at 10:00 am in the Club Room.

Prepare The Way For the Lord — November 16 & 30, December 7 & 13

For centuries, Christians have turned to the story and message of John the Baptist in the weeks leading up to Christmas. In Prepare the Way for the Lord: Advent and the Message of John the Baptist, best-selling author and pastor Adam Hamilton explores the Advent themes of John's life and ministry, and how John calls all followers of Jesus to prepare our hearts for his coming.

In each of the Gospels, the story of Jesus is intertwined with that of his cousin John, the one whom the prophets foretold would come to “prepare the way of the Lord.” When we hear the message of John the Baptist, it makes us and our world ready to receive Christ.

Chapter topics include:

November 16 — 1. A People Prepared for the Lord

November 30 — 2. God is Gracious

December 7 — 3. The Fruit of Repentance

December 14 — 4. Witnesses Testifying to the Light

Order your book or e-book and read chapter 1 for November 16th. Sign-up by emailing mary.morrison@forthillchurch.org. Classes begin at 10:00 am on

Grace in Action

On Sunday, November 13, we will be celebrating Stewardship Dedication Sunday with the theme, “Grace in Action.” Grace is an unmerited favor, an undeserved gift. We are saved by grace through faith. According to John 1:16, we have received grace upon grace. In The Message, it reads, “We all live off His generous abundance, gift after gift after gift.”

At Fort Hill, God’s grace has allowed us to support our mission to “Glorify God, Grow Disciples and Meet Human Needs.” The Session would like to thank you for all you have done for Fort Hill in the past and, as 2023 approaches, we invite you to continue to support the mission of the church by making a financial pledge to respond to God’s abundant grace in your life.

Pledge cards were mailed on October 25, and we ask that you bring your card to service on Stewardship Dedication Sunday on November 13, and we will fill them out together. If you are unable to attend on November 13, you can pledge online at:

<https://forthillchurch.org/worship/stewardship/online-pledge-card/>

Thanks again for all you have done and continue to do for Fort Hill. We look forward to celebrating and spreading more grace in God’s world.

Children's Ministry Corner

In October, the children have continued learning about the fruit of the spirit. The fruit of the spirit are love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. We enjoyed a fun time of fellowship at Denver Downs Farm, celebrating all things fall! The Children's Ministry has been working on making hand-made baskets that will be filled with candy and given out at Christmas during our caroling fellowship event.

Welcome New Babies!

Agnes McCall born September 19
Tyler, Kristen, Pickens, Penny & baby Agnes.

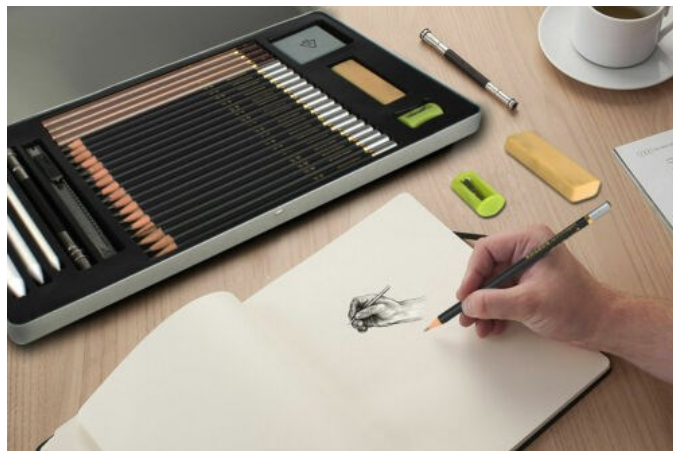

Lucy Ann Nadler born October 21
Proud grandparents, Tim & Ann Howard, with Lucy Ann.
Born to parents Sam & Finley Nadler.

Drawing Studio Coming in November 2022

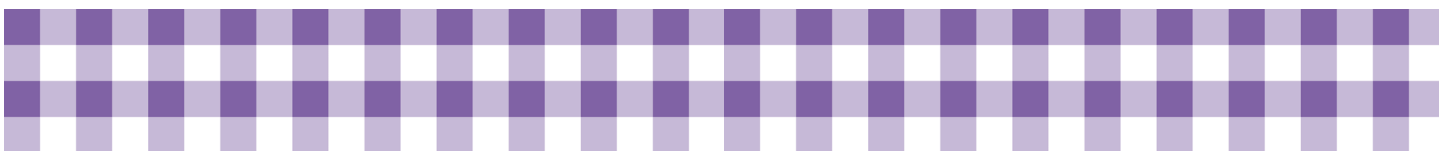

Mary Morrison's sabbatical report shed light on the importance of taking breaks to study, rest, walk, and...draw! If you like to doodle, draw, or want to try your hand at it again after some years, we are here to offer you a gentle nudge of a time and place to get back to your drawing projects. We hope to begin each 2-hour studio with a short scripture, meditation, or poem that also might serve as drawing inspiration.

Join us with your easily transportable drawing paper or sketch book, an idea or photo of something that you would like to draw, pencils, pens, brushes and/or watercolors. We will have a few extra supplies to share so please do not let that keep you away. Given that we will be in the church Club Room and much care has been given to the upkeep of our facilities and plumbing, we ask that you not bring acrylics, oils, or bottled permanent inks for now. Please do, however, bring yourselves, a drawing project that you want to work on that meets the above noted criteria, and your curiosity, interest, and desire to do some drawing in fellowship with others.

The plan is to meet once a month on the 3rd Thursday of the month from 10:00 am — 12:00 pm, in the lower Club Room. The first Drawing Studio is scheduled November 17, 2022, followed by another on December 15, 2022. We'll post a notice of the 2023 schedule after the December studio.

If you have questions or need more information, feel free to contact Donna London at dlondon654@gmail.com or 864.985.8509 or Dianne Smith at dk SNC@aol.com or 828.234.6981.

Fellowship Functions

Remember the Fall Barbecue Lunch on November 6 following the second worship service. Call Morgan at 864.654.2061 by 4:00 pm on November 1 to RSVP if you have not already done so through your Deacon or email (communication@forthillchurch.org).

Craft Connections will meet on November 20 in the Club Room following the second service. Bring a handcraft, a friend, and a bite to eat and relax while we craft and converse together. Contact: Cyndi Davis Fellowship Dining Club (formerly Dinners for Eight) is a new fellowship opportunity where small groups gather for dinner or lunch to meet new people. The fellowship opportunity is being organized by Holly Ridgell to begin in 2023. Email Morgan (communications@forthillchurch.org) to add your name to this group.

Church Mouse

Oh, I just love the “Strong Praises and Singers of Christ” sing. They perform so well, plus it seems to be a family affair: Addie & Ethan Nihoul; Leila, Adair, & Vivian Stevenson; Elizabeth & Edward Crader; Grace Collins; Maggie Wilson; and Adelyn Hudak. One Sunday at the end of September the handbells played so beautifully: Caroline Thomas, Mary Beth Clanton, Rosemary Ross, Karen Johnson, Beth Weber, Tom & Gensie Waldrop and Cindy Prather.

Mary Barron, Mark Kwist, Sally Martin, Debbie Collins, Marcia Barker, Debbie Vaughn, and Joyce Daley made up the search committee that successfully selected the Interim Coordinator for Children and Family Ministries, Kim Morris.

I was so excited to see Rev. Colin Pettigrew’s Installation as our Campus Minister. I can remember when he was at PSA and Mama Mouse can remember him as a youth, which goes back a while. Those participating in his installation service were Pastor Laura, Pastor Mary, and Pastor Jacob from our church, Rev. Debbie Foster, Rev. Dottie Metropol, Rev. Bill Gause (great to see him again after 10 years), elders Nancy Spitler and Stephen Price, plus the music was under the leadership of Judy Bonham and Margaret MacKay. Leanne Broome, Susan Beckwith, and Helen Wooten provided a lovely reception with lots of cookie crumbs for me. It was so thoughtful of them.

Communion was coordinated by Beth Chapman and served by Mark & Robbi Stokes and Chip & Diane Egan.

Be thankful for all those who make this church a place to worship God.

Operation Christmas Child Boxes for Samaritan’s Purse

Here is a way to brighten the Christmas holidays for children around the world!

(Deadline November 6. Please include a $9/box donation for shipping.)

- Use a standard-sized shoebox (no oversized shoe boxes for efficient packing, please) or a similarly sized plastic box.
- Indicate whether the gift is for a girl or boy and include the appropriate age for which the gift is appropriate (2-4, 5-9, 10-14).
- Fill the box with gifts that may include small toys, school supplies, hygiene items (mild soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, comb, etc.), and personal items (sunglasses, t-shirts, socks, watch, ball cap, and solar flashlights). Soccer balls are a longed-for item for boys. A deflated ball and small pump, or a small ball to fit the box is ideal.
- Due to some cultural concerns and beliefs, please avoid stuffed animals.
- If you wish, add a personal greeting in a separate envelope.

Please deliver the filled but unsealed boxes, and any extra gift items to include in them, to the table in the PW Collection Room. The PW Collection Room is located at the bottom of the stairs opposite the Club Room in the Administration Building (entrance on Edgewood Avenue). Eva Henry will collect the boxes on Sunday, November 6.

Christian Action Ministry Update

The Christian Action Ministry (CAM) has been working on some new projects this year and we wanted to bring you up to date on a few of the things recently going on.

A new ministry in Clemson that we agreed to support is the Shaw Center. This group is dedicated to fixing up homes of some of those who are threatened with being crowded out of their residences by developments that are gobbling up land for new projects. We are working on a home on Old Stone Church Road that we are nearly finished with which will make it much more livable.

Photos show Will Henry feeding new wire to Jim Thomas below while working on the home on Old Stone Church Road for the Shaw Center.

We will continue this ministry moving forward and we welcome anyone who would like to get involved. Particularly those who have some expertise in building renovation skills.

US-Mexico Border Ministry Came to Fort Hill

US-Mexico border missionary Mark Adams came to Tartan Hall at Fort Hill to share some Good News about his ministry on Sunday, October 19. Doing God's work in such a dynamic border environment is both challenging and rewarding. In the Aqua Prieta region of Mexico on the border with Arizona, Mark and his team lead a bi-national ministry responding in faith to the realities of immigration and the drug culture.

Mark shared stories of mentors in a drug rehabilitation facility providing opportunities for new life for persons gripped by addiction. In one story, Mark described a situation where recovering addicts were being paid a modest sum of money to tear down a portion of an old building and haul away the refuse. The leader of the rehabilitation facility asked the building's owner if they could keep the shattered glass and tiles that would otherwise have been thrown away. After obtaining permission, the patients then crafted stunning mosaics which now adorn the treatment facility, providing joy and comfort to individuals on a very difficult journey. Mark said the leader told him that the drug addicts arrive at the facility broken, just like the broken pieces of glass and tile. In his mind, God helps them put the pieces together again to form something beautiful and useful in a difficult time.

For more information on Mark and Miriam's ministry, their team, mission delegations and to order coffee or donate directly, visit their website at fronteradecristo.org.
