Message From the Pastor

Going and Coming

Much of my summer is a lot of going and coming! I am lucky if I am able to sit still long enough to catch my breath. This summer the Youth ministry had three trips, Wild Wednesday, and multiple VBS trips for rising 6th graders. Lots of going and coming! Luckily, my wonderful Church family reminds me to slow down and catch my breath. Your summer may feel like that as well. Going to see kids or grandkids. Squeezing in one more trip to the beach or the mountains, possibly paying a visit to that old friend, and enjoying a warm sit in the summer sun. Much of our lives are spent going and coming.

The beauty of the Christian faith is that in seasons of movement, and when it feels like we can't sit still. When we travel, or journey to see friends and family. When we go to serve the Lord in a new and different way, we are sent with a blessing. A reminder that God never leaves us, and is sending us to these new places.

Each morning I arise, and I say a blessing to myself to remember that in everything I do God is with me. So remember, this blessing as you journey, and know that God will meet you wherever you are!

This is the shortened blessing of the Lorica of Saint Patrick, as sung by musician Steve Bell in his song, "The Lorica"

"Be above me, as high as the noonday sun.
Be below me, the rock I set my feet upon.
Be beside me, the wind on my left and right.
Be behind me, oh circle me with your truth and light." Amen

Peace,

Pastor Jacob

Choir Corner

It is summer! It is hot! It is now the eighth month of 2023! That means it is only four months until Christmas, and it will be here before you know it.

The Chancel Choir had the month of July off, and we were blessed with the voices of various choir members singing solos, small groups, etc.

August will begin a new choir year for younger and older folks. Chancel Choir for adults will begin again on Wednesday, August 2, at 7:30 pm in the Choir Room. It is the perfect time to make your dream of singing in a group come true!! And if you are an early bird attendee at the 8:30 service, we also have a group that sings once or twice a month for that service. We usually practice one Sunday morning and put something familiar together to sing the following Sunday.

Here are the lyrics to the song, "A Place in the Choir". It says it all in this way: 'All God's creatures got a place in the choir. Some sing low and some sing higher. Some sing out loud on the telephone wire. Some just clap their hands or paws or anything they got now!'

Give it some thought. Any any questions or share any concerns you may have. I am in the process of finalizing our repertoire for August — December! Please feel free to email me, give me a call, or talk to current members!!

Meanwhile, keep a song in your heart and always...

Keep smiling-n-singing,

Margaret 🌻 🎵 🌻

Youth Ministry Update

Interning at Fort Hill Presbyterian Church this summer has been a transformative experience. Throughout these few months I have found new ways to embrace the spirit of service, and use creative thinking to invest in the growth of the church. After several youth trips, meetings, long nights, early mornings, and meaningful conversations, I have learned what it means to truly invest in developing others' relationship and love of God. As I have watched youth grow into maturity and embrace what it is to become disciples of God I am reminded of the call that Jesus has given us all. Jesus calls us to love everyone around us, care for those in need, and live a life in faith. Taking on the role of Fort Hill Presbyterian Church's Student Minister this summer has reminded me of all of the gifts and talents we all have. I am so thankful I had this opportunity to discover new gifts, nurture those gifts that have already been established, and find new ways to embrace and share the love of God with everyone. Thank you all for putting in the effort to invest in my growth as a disciple, and for trusting me to do the same with you!

Virginia Kackley

The Screwtape Letters Study begins August 30

Join others in discussing C. S. Lewis' classic masterpiece of religious satire, The Screwtape Letters. Beginning, Wednesday, August 30th, a 12-week study will commence that uses Scripture references, questions, and related commentary to examine each letter through a Christian lens of morality, temptation, and good and evil.

Each week we will look deeply into three letters from Uncle Screwtape to his nephew and prime pupil Wormwood. The Screwtape Letters is a brilliant and satirical look at spiritual warfare and the dynamics of temptation. Screwtape, a senior demon in the bureaucracy of Hell, writes letters to his incompetent nephew Wormwood, a junior devil. The younger demon's assignment is to corrupt a young man living in London during the tumultuous days of World War II. At once wildly comic, deadly serious, and strikingly original, C. S. Lewis's The Screwtape Letters is the most engaging account of temptation — and triumph over it — ever written.

The study runs these weeks: August 30, September 6, 20, 27, October 4, 11, 18, 25, November 1, 8, 15, 22. Contact Mary Morrison before August 15th if you would like to participate and she will order books for the participants. We will be using Lewis' book as well as The Screwtape Letters Study Guide by Alan Vermilye. The study group will meet on Wednesdays from 10—11:30 in the Club Room. Cost of the books is $25.

About the Author

Clive Staples Lewis (1898-1963) was one of the intellectual giants of the twentieth century and arguably one of the most influential writers of his day. He was a Fellow and Tutor in English Literature at Oxford University until 1954, when he was unanimously elected to the Chair of Medieval and Renaissance Literature at Cambridge University, a position he held until his retirement. He wrote more than thirty books, allowing him to reach a vast audience, and his works continue to attract thousands of new readers every year. His most distinguished and popular accomplishments include Out of the Silent Planet, The Great Divorce, The Screwtape Letters, and the university acknowledged classics The Chronicles of Narnia. To date, the Narnia books have sold over 100 million copies and have been transformed into three major motion pictures.

Church Mouse

Oh, I am so excited. Vacation Bible School happened in June, and it was wonderful. I loved having all the children here and the wonderful space theme! There were so many helpers that made it all go smoothly. First off, Nina Moede and Kim Morris made it happen along with: Katie & Shuler Wilson, Debbie Vaughn, Helen, Henry, & Donna Crader, Preston & Debbie Shealy, James Kwist, Ashley Burns, Sally & Lucy Martin, Lisa Street, Marcia Barker, Barbara Madison, Ceci Arthur, Holly Ridgell, Chip Egan, Cindy Prather, Cyndi Davis, Miriam Hutto, Suzan Simmons, and Mary Margaret Allman. Plus, our intern, Virginia Kackley helped too. Also, we had the pastors: Mary Morrison, Jacob Kennedy, and Colin Pettigrew. Nan Jones provided 4 bags of cookies for the refreshments for VBS. A BIG THANKS to all who helped.

Pastor Jacob took several middle schoolers to Raleigh, NC, for a Mission trip. Those that participated were: Henry & Edward Crader, Shuler Wilson, Sydney & William Matheson. Then Pastor Jacob took the high school youth of our church to the Montreat High School Youth Conference: Dulcie Mohr, Lucy Martin, Sydney Matheson, Spencer Wright, Lochlan McLaurin, Walton Bost, Jacob Lawson, James Kwist, and advisors Pat & Lisa Street. I wish I could go to Montreat. Over the years I have heard so much about it and the fun of rock hopping in the creek. Of course, I can't do that, but I could watch from the shore.

Summer is almost over for the youth as school starts in August. Oh my, the summer has gone by so fast.

Be sure to thank those who helped make it great. Then ask the youth about their trips.

See you around!!
