Message From the Pastor

Let your love, God, shape my life.

Psalm 119:41 The Message

The older I get the more comfortable I am with mystery, uncertainty. I hope this is a growing trust in an amazing and transcendent God, and not laziness! I read the verse above and thought this could be my daily mantra, my prayer, and my epitaph if I were to die today.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

In all the changes, upsets, challenges, joys, and frustrations.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

When I am faced with difficult people or difficult dilemmas.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

When I am tired and overwhelmed, confused, and hurt.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

When I face a conversation, a task, the day's news.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

When I sit through meetings debating different views and have courage to speak.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

On the field, in the office, at the board meeting, and in the classroom.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

In my Sunday worship and in daily devotion.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

With friends, with strangers, and especially with family.

Let your love, God, shape my life.

I am going to keep trying this prayer/mantra on for size. I offer it to you as you pray, breathe, live, move, and have your being. Christ's peace, God's love, and the fullness of the Holy Spirit be yours as you go about all of your days.

Pastor Laura

Choir Corner

Please welcome our three interim music staff as they help us through the transition following the retirement of our Director of Music, Margaret MacKay. Dr. Porter Stokes will be directing the Chancel Choir, Scott Dillon will be helping with the 8:30 service music, and Kaleigh Stagich will be directing the Children's Choir beginning in August. All three are very much looking forward to helping us raise a joyful song to the Lord!

Scott Dillon grew up in Columbia, SC going to Spring Valley Presbyterian Church. He is a rising junior architecture major with a music minor at Clemson. Scott has enjoyed getting connected to the Fort Hill family through PSA, where he is the worship leader. He likes ultimate frisbee, Coldplay, LEGOs, and movies. Scott wants the congregation to know, "Thank you so much for this opportunity, I look forward to leading Fort Hill in song at the 8:30 service!"

Kaleigh Stagich is from Kennesaw, Georgia. She is a student at Clemson University pursuing a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Performing Arts with a concentration in vocal performance. At Clemson, Kaleigh is the alto section leader and Student Conductor in the Women's Choir, Clemson University Singers, and Clemson's chamber choir, Cantorei. She also volunteers with the Young Voices of the Foothills in Seneca and Pendleton. Kaleigh has a passion for teaching and aspires to teach in secondary education as a choral direction after pursuing a Master's Degree in Choral Music Education. In her free time, Kaleigh enjoys reading, watching sports, and paddleboarding.

Porter Stokes retired from Presbyterian College in 2018 after a fifty-year career in professional music positions that included serving as a choral educator in a middle and high school, several colleges, and churches of a variety of faith traditions; and, most importantly, two appointments here at Fort Hill Presbyterian Church. He had the privilege of attending Clemson University before transferring to the University of South Carolina where he earned two degrees in music prior to completing further study at the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. In addition to his "day jobs," in 1999 he was appointed Artistic Director and Conductor of the Augusta Choral Society where he remained until his retirement in 2023. Porter is the proud father of two sons (one a Clemson University alum, one a Presbyterian College alum) and two daughters-in-law. He is also grandfather to eight magnificent children between the ages of six and sixteen. He currently stays busy renovating his home in Anderson, singing with the Lexington County Choral Society in Lexington, SC, and thoroughly enjoying his role as "Pop-Pop" to all eight grandchildren.

1st SUNDAY SUMMER

Breakfast

Sunday, August 4
9:00 in Tartan Hall

Meet at 9 am in Tartan Hall for the final first Sunday Breakfast.

Bring your favorite breakfast item to share with your church family as we reconnect after our summer adventures.

My dear friends in choir, on staff, and members of Fort Hill,

There aren't enough words to thank you for the opportunity and years I had to serve at the Fort. I am so thankful for your friendships, your kindness, support, and encouragement. You were there to celebrate the arrival of our grandchildren; supported us when our daughter Mary Kathleen was diagnosed with cancer and when Raymond had his heart surgery. There was never any doubt that God led us to be part of your wonderful church family. We are so grateful for each of you. What a great staff and amazing congregation! Thank you for everything. And whoever comes in to serve as your musician will be blessed, encouraged, and loved just as we were.

Love,

Margaret and Raymond

Montreat Youth Conference 2024

“Planting Peace”

What’s so special about Montreat? We all know that Montreat is a “thin place.” There’s got to be a reason other than it’s a safe space for people to feel the closeness of God. And it can’t only be the good music or the ducks. It can’t be the hikes or the skipping of rocks. So what is it?

Because it’s a “brave space.”

Montreat is a place where community is a priority and we choose to put technology down to make new friendships. Social interactions can be complicated for some, and Montreat provides a space to practice, which makes Montreat more than a safe space; it is a brave space. It is where all feel welcome. This year’s theme, “Planting Peace,” answered the question with one word: Shalom.

Shalom, we learned from our keynoter, Rev. John Molina-Moore, is more than just peace. Shalom literally means “wholeness.” That is what our Youth experienced at Montreat this past July: wholeness in community with one another and Youth from around the country. This year, as our Discipleship Ministry has chosen our theme, “Community is Here,” we will talk a lot about community. Let us work together to “Plant Peace” and help to create wholeness with all people in community with one another. That’s the meaning of “Community is Here.” If you want to know more, ask any of our attendees about their amazing experience.

Thanks to all who helped at Vacation Bible School. I took a mini vacation and stole away with Pat and Lisa Street up to Montreat. While the views were spectacular and the air was refreshing, those hills were brutal on my little, tiny legs. I had to rest up when I got back.

Hayden Anderson, Walton Bost, James Kwist, Jacob Lawson, Lucy Martin, Sydney Matheson, Dulcie Mohr, Harrison Steele, Anna Woodward, and Spencer Wright. Advisors were Lisa Street, Kelly McCord, and Michael Steele. Plus, Pastor Jacob was Co-Director and Pastor Preston Shealy was a small group leader. These are some of those involved in the Youth Conference at Montreat from our Fort Hill Presbyterian Church.

The Pastoral Search Committee, with Robin Weeks as the coordinator, joined by Greg Bearden, Robbi Stokes, Stephanie Scott, and Ben Sill, brought us Rev. Pat Rabun. He is already doing visitations within the Congregation. Welcome, and I am so glad to see someone in that office again. Maybe he will leave me some crumbs since the pre-school has not started back.

On both June 23 and the 30th the choir sang anthems especially written to honor our own retiring music director, Margaret Mackay, and our own chancel choir.

One Sunday in July the congregation listened to the inspiring music provided by Ashley Fisk on the violin, and she was joined by the duet of vocal music done by Marret Fisk and Grace Collins.

Children's Ministry Corner

Over 60 people attended VBS, between volunteers and participants. Camp Firelight was joyful, with much learning and exploration through scripture. Our favorite stations were science, art, snacks and reflection, recreation, and mission.

At our mission station, we learned about helping others in our community. We colored pillowcases that said, "You are Loved," and donated 40 pillowcases to Safe Harbor. We decorated about 30 placemats for Meals on Wheels. We also donated about 50 stuffed animals to state troopers for distribution to children in wrecks.

Together, we learned to put our trust in God, to lead the way, to share wisdom, to bring peace, and to spark joy. Overall, we learned that Whenever I'm afraid, I put my trust in you. -Psalm 56:3.

Dear Fort Hill Family,

I couldn't ask for a more warm welcome and friendly acceptance than what I have received from so many of you as I begin a new chapter in my life serving on this great staff. The congregation of Fort Hill is so blessed to have the leadership that you have, and to now be a part of that is a wonderful opportunity for me. Just to help me out, please continue to tell me your name when we meet, or better yet, try to remember to wear your name tag so that hopefully in the not too distant future, I will get to know many of you. As your pastor for Congregational Care, if there is ever a time you would like a visit, (and it can be just for fun, it doesn't always have to be a serious pastoral call) please be sure and let me know, and I will be glad to spend the time with you.

A Call To Serve

Every year, the Officer Nominating Committee (ONC) recommends a slate of 7 Elders and 8 Deacons to serve a three-year term and 2 Youth Elders to serve a one-year term. The committee seeks individuals who would represent the many different parts of our congregation, recognizing that Fort Hill is not only made up of those with varied ages, backgrounds and interests, but is composed of those with the kind of genuine commitment and positive spirit which makes Fort Hill the exceptional place of worship and service that it is! The term of service for this class will begin in March 2025. Are you sensing a call that you might serve as an Officer at Fort Hill? Do you know of others who have expressed an interest in serving? If so, please contact any of the members of the ONC listed below to engage in conversation. We'd be happy to answer any questions you may have about serving as an Elder or Deacon at Fort Hill.

You may also let us know of your interest by completing an ONC Response Form available below or in the Narthex or clicking on the link below. Please return forms to the Church Office or you may place completed forms in the Collection Plate in the Narthex. We ask that nominations be submitted by Sunday, August 18th:

<https://form.jotform.com/forthillchurch/onc-response-form>

ONC Response Form

I would like to engage in Exploring a Call to serve as a Fort Hill deacon or elder.

I understand that submitting my name does not equate to a formal nomination to either office, or a commitment to serve. It will merely open the door to additional learning and Q&A opportunities.

Fellowship Opportunities

Save the Dates!! August 4th

Don't forget to attend our last First Sunday Summer Breakfast on August 4th. We have devoured some delicious homemade goodies in June and July and really enjoyed meeting Pat and Marcia Rabun last month. Please bring a yummy breakfast food such as egg casserole, muffins, biscuits, fruit, yogurt, etc. to share with fellow members and friends. Join us in Tartan Hall at 9 am for food and fellowship before worship.

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! Our school bus was overflowing with all the school supply donations. The Fellowship and Christian Action Ministries are so grateful for the congregation of Fort Hill. Your generosity will surely bring smiles to the faces of so many children as they start the new school year with new backpacks and supplies needed to perform and learn new skills this year. This was an awesome way to show how God's love is passed on through our actions.

Other Fellowship Opportunities in the Summer

Book Club in the Den at 7 pm. Everyone is welcome!!

On August 12th we will be discussing the book, The Outsiders by S. E. Hinton.

On September 9th we will be discussing the book, Swift River by Essie Chambers.

Craft Connections

We will meet August 25th after worship in the Club Room. Bring a craft you are working on and join in the fun conversations and fellowship.

Supper Club is the new name for our fellowship activity that will start up again in September. Small groups meet for a meal and conversation at someone's house or at a chosen restaurant. This is an awesome way to meet new friends or join with old friends as you spend time together over good food and laughter. Call Holly Ridgell at 864-320-2366 to join in the fun.

Please consider joining our team as we plan and host parties and fun gatherings for our church family. You can join the Fellowship Ministry by calling or texting Debbie Shealy at 912-656-4596. We would love your input and new ideas.

Singles and Couples Welcome
Begins in September

Groups meet at homes or local restaurants for dinner and fellowship.

Thank You

The meals packaged at our Rise Against Hunger experience were shipped to Birundi, a country in East Africa, at the end of March. Thank you to the large turnout from our church members and PSA at the event in February. These meals you packaged will help ensure that refugees and displaced Birudians have access to the consistent nourishment they need to live healthy lives and for children to successfully pursue their education.
